

30-11-2016

16 outstanding projects in the European Digital Skills Award 2016 final | Digital Single Market

ixteen projects which encourage people to develop digital skills for work, education and life in general have been selected as finalists for the Digital Skills Award 2016. The four most outstanding projects will be announced by Günther H. Oettinger, Commissioner for Digital Economy and Society, in Brussels on 1 December at the launch of the Digital Skills and Jobs Coalition, visit the official Commission website